

Research & Outputs from the ESRC-funded Surrey Perinatal Partnership

Ranjana Das & Paul Hodkinson

Factograpics (with IHV)

- New dad? You're not alone.
- New parent during the pandemic?
- A baby is a blessing so why do I feel this way?

Evidence Reviews (for NCT)

- Perinatal mental health of mothers from migrant communities
- Fathers' experiences of birth trauma
- Paternal perinatal depression and anxiety
- Fathers' experiences of perinatal loss

Professional Development

- We have produced CPD material (including an infographic and worksheet) and delivered sessions for NCT practitioners. We have also engaged with health visitors at various iHV forums and contributed to University modules in health, nursing and related fields.

Research reports

- Select Committee Evidence on new fathers' mental health
- Select Committee Evidence on COVID impacts on pregnancy and maternity
- Mothers from migrant communities and perinatal mental health
- New fathers, digital media and mental health

Our academic papers

These include all our journal papers on perinatal wellbeing, including those predating the ESRC funded impact partnership. If you do not have access to these, do contact us for a copy.

- Das, R. (2021). Women's experiences of maternity and perinatal mental health services during the first Covid-19 lockdown. Journal of Health Visiting, 9(7), 297-303.
- Das, R. & Beszlag, D. (2021). Migrant mothers' experiences of perinatal mental ill health in the UK and their expectations of healthcare. Journal of Health Visiting Online First.
- Das, R. & Hodkinson, P. (2020). Affective coding: Strategies of online steganography in fathers' mental health disclosure. New Media and Society
- Das, R., & Hodkinson, P. (2019). Tapestries of intimacy: Networked intimacies and new fathers' emotional self-disclosure of mental health struggles. Social Media+ Society, 5(2), 2056305119846488.
- Das, R. (2018). Temporally inexpensive, affectively expensive: Digitally mediated maternal interpersonal ties in the perinatal months. Communication, Culture and Critique
- Das, R. (2018). The mediated subjectivities of the maternal: A critique of childbirth videos on YouTube. Communication Review.
- Das, R. (2017). Speaking about birth: Visible and silenced narratives in online discussions of childbirth. Social Media + Society.
- Das, R. (2017). The mediation of childbirth: Joyful birthing and strategies of silencing on a Facebook advice and support group. European Journal of Cultural Studies

Our books

Find us online

- Our website: www.surreyperinatal.net
- Our blogs and all publications on this link
- Twitter: @Surreyperinatal; @ProfRanjanaDas & @Paul Hodkinson
- Ranjana's email: r.das@surrey.ac.uk
- Paul's email: p.hodkinson@surrey.ac.uk